Re: In Re: Bradley C. Reifler, Case No. 7:20-cv-1427 (VB)

Dear Judge Briccetti:

We are counsel to Lisette Ackerberg and write to respectfully request the Court terminate her as a party in the instant bankruptcy appeal. Although Ms. Ackerberg was a defendant in the underlying adversary proceeding, she is not a party to the instant appeal. (See Notice of Appeal, ECF No. 1.) Therefore, she should not have been identified as an appellant on the docket.

In addition to terminating Ms. Ackerberg as a party in this appeal, we also respectfully request the Court terminate me as her attorney as I will be leaving Yankwitt LLP and will no longer be representing Ms. Ackerberg.¹

We appreciate the Court's attention to this matter.

APPLICATION GRANTED.

The Clerk is instructed to terminate Lisette Ackerberg as a party in this case, and also to terminate Craig Cepler as counsel for Lisette Ackerberg in this case.

The Clerk is further instructed to terminate the motion. (Doc. #25).

SO ORDERED:

Vincent L. Briccetti, U.S.D.J.

Diligently,

ITT LLP

Cepler

¹ Ms. Ackerberg's termination as a party to this case should obviate the need for her to have an attorney of record in this case. Nonetheless, if the Court desires, we will file an appearance for another attorney on behalf of Ms. Ackerberg.
